Parent & Student Agreement

Honor Code

As students and parents of North Florida Yeshiva, we commit ourselves to discipline, encouragement and integrity of our academic progress. We are accountable for all that we say and write. We pledge that we will not misrepresent our work nor give or receive unauthorized aid. We are respectful of time constraints and objectives for proper accomplishment of courses/degrees. We will not tolerate a lack of respect for any of these values.

Student:

I accept responsibility to maintain the Honor Code at all times.

Disciplinary Action

If course work, attendance submission or communication is compromised in any way, North Florida Yeshiva reserves the right to dismiss a student after two offenses.

Thank you for understanding!

Withdrawal

A family may withdraw a student from North Florida Yeshiva upon submittal of a signed and dated letter. Copies of records and attendance can be issued to a family if requested.
